CONTENTS

Preface .....................................................................................................................9

INTRODUCTION

Chris Lukinbeal / Stefan Zimmermann
A Cinematic World ................................................................................................25

Deborah Dixon / Leo Zonn / Johnathan Bascom
Post-ing the Cinema:
Reassessing Analytical Stances Toward a Geography of Film ............................25

THE AUTHOR

Joseph Palis
An Unmapped People and Places:
Cinema, Nation and the Aesthetics of Affection ...............................................51

Gerd Becker
Nouri Bouzid’s Bezness as a Visual Study on the Glance:
Reflections on Exploring the Scientific Potential of Non-verbal Cinema ..........59

Deborah Dixon
‘Independent’ Documentary in the U.S.:
The Politics of Personal Passions .......................................................................65

THE TEXT

Marcus A. Doel
From Animated Photography to Film: the Formation of Vernacular
Relativity in Early English Films (1895–1908) ....................................................87

David B. Clarke
Spaces of Anonymity ..........................................................................................101

Christopher M. Moreno / Stuart Aitken
Space Operas and Cultures of Addiction:
The Animated Tale of Philip K. Dick’s A Scanner Darkly .................................115
Susan P. Mains
‘English Fever’: Documenting the Caribbean Diaspora in The Colony ..........137

Mita Banerjee / Peter W. Marx
Ally Lives Just Next Door...
German-U.S. Relations in Popular Culture .........................................................155

Stefan Zimmermann
Landscapes of Heimat in Post-war German Cinema ...........................................171

THE READER

Christina Beal Kennedy
Living with Film: An Autobiographical Approach .............................................187

Contributors ........................................................................................................205